Green Bay (Feb. 15, 2010) - Three Days Grace will perform at the Resch Center on March 28 as part of its headlining tour in support of the band's most recent release Life Starts Now. Joining Three Days Grace on tour will be special guests Chevelle as well as Adelita's Way.

"Break," the first single from Life Starts Now, has been #1 on the Active Rock Radio Charts charts for 12 weeks and was #1 at Mainstream Rock for 7 weeks. It also reached Top 5 at Alternative Radio. Life Starts Now debuted at #3 on the Billboard Top 200 charts making it the highest debut ever for the band.

The band just completed a 2 month co-headlining tour of the US with Breaking Benjamin and special guest Flyleaf and prior to that a national headline Canadian tour.

The Toronto-based rock band is comprised of Adam Gontier (vocals, guitar), Neil Sanderson (drums, piano), Brad Walst (bass), and Barry Stock (lead guitar).

Their first album, the self titled Three Days Grace, was released in 2003. The album generated 3 hit singles, "I Hate Everything About You" which reached #2 on the Mediabase Modern Rock charts and Top 5 on the Mediabase Mainstream Rock charts. "Just Like You" went to #1 on both the Mediabase Modern Rock and Mediabase Mainstream Rock charts and "Home" went to #2 on the Mediabase Mainstream Rock charts.

One-X, the band's sophomore album, was released in 2006 and had a debut on the Billboard Album Chart at #5. That album also produced three #1 Mediabase Mainstream Rock singles "Animal I've Become," "Pain" and "Never Too Late."

For 2007, Mediabase ranked Three Days Grace as the # 1 artist in airplay across all rock formats (Modern Rock, Active Rock, Mainstream Rock). That same year R&R/Billboard also ranked Three Days Grace as #1 Active Rock Artist of the Year, #1 Rock Artist of the Year and # 2 Modern Rock/Alternative Artist of the Year.

Both Three Days Grace and One-X have been certified Platinum. Three Days Grace has sold more than 4 million albums worldwide.

Tickets are $39 general admission and available at all Oneida Casino Ticket Star outlets including the Resch Center box office, online at www.ticketstaronline.com and by phone 494.3401 or toll free 800.895.0071.
