

Everybody's Rummage Sale coming to Shopko Hall St. Vincent De Paul to benefit from anything left behind

Green Bay (Oct.14, 2009) – You can be a buyer, a seller or both at Everybody's Rummage Sale presented by the Green Bay Press-Gazette and 103.1 WOGB on Saturday, November 21, 8am-4pm at Shopko Hall. Everybody can use a few extra dollars for the holidays and everybody has something in their basement or garage to sell. Everybody is welcome to sell it or buy it at this unique event.

You can rent a 10 ft. x 10 ft. space for only $25 and sell anything you can fit in that space like furniture, clothes, electronics, books, movies and more. If you don't have enough stuff yourself, you can share the space with family, friends, or neighbors so they can sell their stuff too!

For only $10 more, rummage sale participants may advertise what they're selling by purchasing 15 lines on a special event group ad that will publish inside the Green Bay Press-Gazette Classified section and on greenbaypressgazette.com each day November 15 - 21.

When the sale is over, you can take your rummage back home or leave it behind and donate it to St. Vincent De Paul. Your choice!

Admission is $2, but a $1 discount coupon will be available in the Press-Gazette, at WOGB.fm or pmishows.com.

To rent space, call 920.405.1199 or go to www.pmishows.com.
